Cavesham, 29 Aug: 86.

My Noble Lord,

I should be very unworthy, if I should not with as much gratitude own ye Favors designed, as ye Favors done me by your Ldp̃; being equally your Ldp̃s ever obliged Debtor for Both.

Your Ldp̃ with ye whole world is now a Witnesse of ye Alienation of ye Kings favor from me. The Cause of which, ye Bp̃ of Duresme, having sent for me about ye beginning of this moneth, told me, was a Letter said to have bin Wrote by me not long since to Dr Bathurst ye Dean of Wells & since by his Brother Sr Benja: Bathurst putt into ye Kings hands, in which I had reflected upon m^{r} Walker of Oxoñ; though no particular was alleaged by his Ldp̃ of any such Reflexion. This, my Lord, is my whole Charge.

In answer to which I then assured his Ldp̃, & doe now assure your Hon^{r} by all that is True & Sacred, yt at ye Time of this Charge, I had not for 3 or 4 years last past so much as wrote to Dr Bathurst at all. And I have, since that, received a L^{r} from Him, in answer to one wrote by me to Him upon this occasion (which L^{r} I keep by me ready to be produced) in which he positively & Solemnly ownes & avowes ye same.

And thus (my Lord) stands my Case. I am cast off & slurr'd in ye face of ye whole Kingdome for a Letter. A Letter that was never Wrote, never Received, & so, no wonder, if never Produced. If it can I will forfeit my neck to ye Gallowes. And ye King himself upon ye Report of my absolute denyall of it was so Gracious as to promise ye Bp̃ of Duresme yt he would enquire further into it & yt my Accusers should either prove w^{t} they had said true or y^{m}selves Lyars. The former, as I am sure, can never be done, & ye latter I cañot yet hear declared.

And therefore (my good Lord) since neither ye Kings former good Opinion & large Testimony of me Confirmed by that worthy Character given me by your Hon^{r}, & indeed by all ye great ministers, have prevailed anything for me agst this pittifull malicious Whisper. I have but this one humble Request now to make to your Ldp̃, viz: That if your Ldp̃ reteines any Kindnes for me as an old Servant of your family, & one whom your Noble father had a greater Kindnesse for than his misfortunes suffered him to show, your Hon^{r} would so farr Concern your self for me, as to search into ye Bottome of this Businesse, & to find out by whom & for what I stand accused to ye King; & when your Ldp̃ has informed yourself, y^{t} your Hon^{r} would Vouchsafe allso to inform me. Not y^{t} I have any thoughts of Creating ye least Trouble to any one upon this Account, but y^{t} I may learn from hence both how to govern & secure my self for ye Future. What your Ldp̃ shall doe for me in this matter I shall own as an obligation upon me to my dying Day.

Time, I doubt not, will doe that for me that I cañot do for my self, & every day more & more Convince your Hon^{r} of y^{e} sincere mind of (my Lord)

Your Hon^{rs} most faith-full humble & obliged servant

For y^{e} Right Honourable
Lawrence Earl of Rochester Lord High Treasurer of England, & one of y^{e} Lords of his majestyes Privy Councill &c.

These
most humbly.
